"I am grateful to perform You, the piece Danspace Project commissioned and premiered in 2023, now at the Ellen Stewart Theater of La MaMa. My teacher Kazuo Ohno's official New York debut was in 1981 in this space. He was 75 years old then. I did not even imagine then that I was to perform in the same space at 75, too!" —Koma

"Surrounded by flowers in full bloom, I am back in the Green-Wood Cemetery working on Stone I, my third piece for this place. I performed A Body in a Cemetery in 2020, in the midst of the pandemic, and With Mother in the Historic Chapel last spring. This time I am in the same chapel but working with stones after sunset. I love this place not only for its landscape but also for the people who work here. I wonder if it is their dealing everyday with the deaths, history, and stones that makes these people so real and respectful. Thank you.

The video I will project was filmed during a creative residency at Milvus Artistic Research Center (MARC), directed by Rachel Tess and filmed by Thomas Zamolo. My dramaturg is Iris McCloughan." —Eiko
